Southwick Cultural Council seeks local grant applications for 2020

September 9, 2019 -- The Southwick Cultural Council (SCC) for arts, humanities, and interpretive science, is now accepting grant applications for year 2020. The Council can only accept applications online from individuals, organizations and schools – deadline for applications is October 15th.

The on-line application can be completed and submitted at www.mass-culture.org. The online application process is simple asking applicants for basic budget information and the scope of a project.

According to Chair Susan Kochanski, the Council is looking to give out $6500 in grants that support a variety of artistic projects and activities in Southwick including exhibits, festivals, short-term residences or performances in schools, the public library, workshops and lectures.

For more information, please contact Susan Kochanski at 413 569 0946.

The Southwick Cultural Council (SCC) is an all-volunteer local partner of the Massachusetts Cultural Council (MCC), a state agency and is funded in part by the MCC and Town of Southwick. The SCC is devoted to bringing engaging, entertaining, and educational events to the children and adults from Southwick and surrounding communities. For additional information visit www.southwickma.org/cultural. The Council meets the third Thursday of each month at the Southwick Town Hall at 7:00 p.m.
